

The Countdown is on.....August 27th is approaching fast!
Don't miss out on the biggest one-day Country Music line-up of the summer!

Lighting up the festival stage this year is the 2010 Male Vocalist of The Year and star of the hit NBC show The Voice, Blake Shelton!! Blake is set to release an album entitled 'Red River Blue' on July 12th featuring the hit single "Honey Bee."

Joining Blake is the legendary country group Lonestar. Over the past two decades Lonestar has amassed a total of twenty-seven singles on the country charts, with 10 of those reaching Number One. The band's musical legacy is tied to modern-day classics like "Amazed", "I'm Already There", and "My Front Porch Looking In".

Canadian singer-songwriter Jason McCoy will also perform at the Festival. With five studio albums, one greatest hits collection and songs reaching the top of the country charts such as "Born Again in Dixieland" and "This Used to be Our Town" he's sure to ignite the crowd!

Supporting this stellar line-up is Jaydee Bixby, Victoria Banks, Dry County, River Junction Band and Snakebite.

New this year is an exciting opportunity to win your tickets to 'the field'. For full contest details check out our Facebook or Event webpage www.musicinthefields.ca

Make your plans now for a great weekend of camping, country music and some small town fun!

Tickets are for sale online at www.ticketscene.ca

